

Contents

- Introduction1

- Chapter One
- Your Body5
- Understanding Adrenaline 6
- Controlling Your Lower Body 10
- Plant Your Feet 11
- Stand Still 13
- Flexible Knees 13
- Center Your Hips14
- Move with a Purpose 15
- Conscious, Controlled Breathing 18
- The Mechanics of Conscious Breathing 19
- Breathe In and Speak Out 22
- Oxygenate Your Thinking Brain 23
- What Do You Do with Your Hands? 24
- The Science of Natural Gestures 26
- Jump-Start Your Own Gestures 28
- The Zone of Gesture 30
- The Impulse to Gesture 32
- What Do You Do with Your Hands When You
Are Not Gesturing? 34
- The Ready Position 34
- Never Say Never 36
- The Mechanics of Readiness 37
- The Secret Handshake 37
- Don't Hold a Pen 38
- Some Gestures Are Distracting 38
- The 3 R's of Natural Gesture 39
- Give, Chop, and Show 40
- Gesture "On the Shelf " 43
- Summing Up Gestures 44
- Posture and Alignment 45
- Your Neck and Head 46
- Align Your Spine 46
- Your Face 47
- Your Mouth 48
- Your Furrowed Brow 49
- Eye Contact 50
- Eyes and Notes 54
- Summary 54
- Mantras of Self-Instruction 55

Chapter Two

Your Brain	57
Adrenaline and the Time Warp	58
Seeking the Zone of Concentration	60
Echoic Memory	63
Thinking on Your Feet	65
Do Not Read	65
Do Not Recite	66
Structured Improvisation	67
Do Not Read and Talk Simultaneously	69
Notes as Your Visual Aid	70
viii · The Articulate Advocate
Plan to Forget	72
Scripting as a Preliminary Step	75
Avoid Thinking Backward	75
Chunking	76
Structure: Primacy and Recency	77
Attitude as a Tactical Choice	80
Summary	81
Mantras of Self-Instruction	83

Chapter Three

Your Voice	85
Listening to Yourself	86
Your Lungs and Diaphragm	87
Intercostal Muscles and Your Ribcage	88
Breathe In and Speak Out	89
Your Larynx and Vocal Cords	90
Articulators and Articulation	91
Warm Up to Be Articulate	93
Making Persuasive Choices	95
Energy Up, Pace Down	96
Speak in Phrases, Not Whole Sentences	97
The Mechanics of Phrasing	99
Vary the Pace	100
Use Your First Utterances to Set the Pace	101
Begin Sentences Deliberately	102
Eliminate Thinking Noises	103
Emphasis and Meaning	105
Volume, Pitch, and Duration	108
Contents · ix
Why Not Just Read?	111
When You Must Read	113
Gestures and Emphasis	114
Monotone	115
Conduct Yourself	115

Be Smooth	116
Practice Beginnings with Gestures	116
Visualize Your Performance	119
Prosody: The Music of Natural Conversation	119
Walking Up and Down the Steps of Intonation	120
Ending with Confidence	123
Walking Up the Steps	124
The Questioning Curl	125
Curling and Listing	128
Tone as a Tactical Choice	130
Practicing Verbal Skills	130
Summary	131
Mantras of Self-Instruction	132

Chapter Four

How to Practice	135
To Know and Know How	137
Practice: Resistance and Avoidance	139
Don't Use a Mirror	139
Rationalizations That Inhibit Practicing	140
“I'm not an actor!”	140
“If this were a real case....”	140
“I don't want to be overprepared.”	140
x · The Articulate Advocate
“I feel so silly.”	141
Be Patient	141
How to Practice Step-by-Step	142
Run Your Body's Checklist	144
Warm Up Your Voice	145
Speak in Phrases	145
Gesture Immediately	146
Talk First and Write Second	146
Practice Your Beginning	146
Practice Your Ending	147
Practice Transitions and Headlines	148
Practice Jump-Starting Your Gestures	149
When You Must Read Aloud: Practice!	149
When You Must Recite from Memory	150
Notes and Visual Aids	150
Practice Courtroom Rituals Aloud	152
Use a Video Camera	153
When to Use a Mirror	153
Exercises to Solve Specific Problems	154
“I talk too softly.”	154
“I just can't stand still.”	154
“I speak too quickly.”	155
“My eyes aren't focused.”	155

“I say um too much.”	156
“I say okay after answers on direct examination.”	157
“I begin leading questions with and ...on cross examination.” ...	159
“I’m so boring.”	160
Informal Practice Sessions	162
Practice During Everyday Conversations	163
Observe, Adapt, Adopt	163
The Law of Opposites	164
Practicing for the Mental Game	165
Contents · xi
Summary	168
Mantras of Self-Instruction	170

Appendices

Appendix 1
Speaking Persuasively, Thinking on Your Feet	174
Appendix 2
Video Self-Review Checklist	179
Bibliography	185
Index	187